Hire qualified people with Oregon's

NCRC

The National Career Readiness Certificate documents work-related skills. It helps Oregon employers hire, train and retain qualified employees.

An assessment of foundational skills

The NCRC documents applied skills in three core areas critical to success in a majority of jobs in the workplace. The certificate is relevant for people with all levels of experience, for jobs at every point on the skill continuum and in nearly any industry.

The National Career Readiness Certificate is nationally recognized and utilized by thousands of employers and job applicants.

The NCRC helps businesses build and maintain a skilled workforce

Oregon's NCRC is a nationally recognized certificate providing objective documentation of employees' skills.

- ✓ The NCRC measures three foundational skills necessary for a majority of jobs: Applied Mathematics, Reading for Information, and Locating Information.
- ✓ Oregon's NCRC helps employers quickly identify qualified applicants, and helps job applicants demonstrate their skills and stand out from the crowd.
- ✓ Individuals holding an NCRC have a documented level of foundational skills, and are ready to be trained in the specific requirements of a job.
- ✓ The NCRC can reduce your hiring and training costs, and employee turnover.
- ✓ The NCRC can be easily incorporated into your existing hiring practices as one factor in many to determine an applicant's fit to the job opening.

Your organization is invited to sign a Letter of Commitment to prefer the NCRC in your company's recruitment and hiring process.

Learn how Oregon's NCRC can help you solve your workforce and hiring needs.

For more information, and a list of local NCRC representatives, visit www.OregonNCRC.org

WorkKeys® and the National Career Readiness Certificate logo are registered trademarks of ACT, Inc.

