

Considering a new career? Consider the Trades!

Pre-Apprenticeship Training at Portland Community College is available remotely and at no cost to eligible people!

Are you a Washington County resident who is receiving SNAP (food stamps)? You may qualify for training (at no cost to you) to prepare you for a career in the trades!

Work in the trades is a growth industry and apprenticeship programs are looking for trainees. Women, people of color, and young people are especially encouraged to apply to this Pre-Apprenticeship program.

Information sessions are happening now! Go to our website

<https://www.pcc.edu/programs/apprenticeship/pathway-apprenticeship-pre-trades/> to sign up for the next one, or contact us below.

For more information contact:

Karin Kief

karin.kief@pcc.edu or

wconstruction-group@pcc.edu

971.722.9199

This program financed in whole or in part with funds provided through Worksystems, Inc. from the US Department of Labor and Washington County. Portland Community College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Institution. If you experience disability related barriers or anticipate a need for accommodation please contact the event planner. For additional resources, or to provide feedback, please see <http://www.pcc.edu/about/accessibility>